

Hugbug's Adventure

By Marcus Saker, 7 yrs old

Once upon a time there was a boy called Mark. He found a bug and named it Hugbug. He brought Hugbug inside his classroom, Room 3, but then Hugbug hopped away. Mark ran after him. Hugbug hid so Mark couldn't find him. Then Hugbug went outside to go on an adventure so off he went, but did he know if Mark was still looking for him? No, but he kept on hopping anyway. Then he went inside Room 10 and he looked around. It was an incredible sight. There were chairs and tables everywhere you looked. There were also sinks and taps. He hopped around the place. Of course he didn't know where he was. There were also lots of children and there was a teacher wearing a yellow vest. He jumped onto a chair. Then he went through the front door into the corridor. He hopped to the front quad and he hopped to the bike track and went onto the school field. Hugbug hopped back to the concrete and went inside the school hall. The kapa haka group was practising for the Mihi Whakatau. The principals from other schools were coming to visit. Then Hugbug went back to Room 3 and Mark saw him and got him before he could hop away again.

The End!
