

Tiara's Bracelet

By Luna Rama

Once upon a time there was a girl and her name was Tiara. She lived with her mum, dad and her big sister Maya.

Tiara loved studying mermaids and Maya loved studying magic. Tiara wished to be a mermaid and Maya wished to be a fairy.

Tiara's favorite thing in the whole world was her special, magical mermaid bracelet. She had found it once, after studying an ancient mermaid book. Inside the book was a secret page which said "bring this book with you to the enchanted waterfall and you may find something very special".

Tiara did as the book said. When she swam into the waterfall she found the magical bracelet. The bracelet was gold and silver. When she put it on, everything around her sparkled. Tiara began speaking an ancient mermaid language she had never even heard before. Suddenly mermaids appeared from under the waterfall.

One night when Tiara went to bed, she went to take off her magical mermaid bracelet but it wasn't there.

"Oh no, I've lost my bracelet," she said.

Tiara called her mum and dad. They looked under the bed but it wasn't there.

Her parents woke her big sister up and the family searched the whole house but still couldn't find it.

Tiara saw her paper and pencil and she had an idea.

She drew a picture of her magical mermaid bracelet. She put posters of her missing bracelet all over the village. All of the villagers looked at her poster but no one had seen her magical mermaid bracelet.

One day a little girl moved in next door. She was playing on the playground at the park and she saw the bracelet. "Oh, this matches the poster I saw in the village! I will bring it to her house."

She knocked on Tiara's door and Tiara came out.

The little girl said "Is this your bracelet?"

"Oh yes, where did you find it?"

"I found it on the playground"

“Oh my bracelet must have been loose and fallen off! Thank you so much for finding it for me. You’re very kind. Want to be friends?”

“Yes!” said the little girl. “My name is Nia.”

Tiara showed her family. They were so glad that someone had found it for her.

Tiara showed Nia where the mermaid waterfall was and they became best friends.

They all lived happily ever after.
