

Memorable Character activity

Do they hate their name?

Does your character's guardian have a secret? Is your character open minded and hardworking?

Is your character a natural leader and sensitive?

Is your character curious and unpredictable?

Is your character quick to anger?

What does your character want? How are they going to get what they want?

What frustrates your character more than anything? How do they deal with this frustration?

What challenges your character? Do they need to be top of the class, be the best athlete in school?

What secrets do they have, that they don't want anyone to know? What would they do to keep their secrets?